8. INCIDENT DETAILS

This incident occurred on 09/28/2020 at 1818 hours at US 422, Kittanning Twp., Armstrong County. A trooper stationed at Troop D Kittanning was on patrol on US Route 422, Kittanning Twp., Armstrong County when the Trooper observed a red Jeep Liberty bearing Michigan registration EAJ8755. The Trooper observed multiple traffic violations and a traffic stop was conducted. The trooper contacted the operator who identified as Clark Kendrick PROCTOR Jr. While the Trooper was speaking with PROCTOR, the trooper observed PROCTOR to exhibit signs of impairment and an odor of marijuana was observed from the interior of the vehicle. The Trooper requested PROCTOR out of the vehicle for the possibility of field sobriety testing at which time PROCTOR refused. PROCTOR was requested from the vehicle multiple times which he again refused to comply. Troopers attempted to forcibly remove PROCTOR from the vehicle when he then fled the traffic stop. A pursuit ensued for approx.. 1.3 miles. PROCTOR traveled off of the roadway and onto private property traveling through a driveway and yard. Two PIT maneuvers were conducted by Troopers. The first maneuver was unsuccessful and the patrol unit struck a tree. It subsequently caught fire. The second maneuver was successful and stopped the pursuit. PROCTOR was then taken into custody. A search of his vehicle found a gun, drugs, and drug paraphernalia within. PROCTOR submitted to a blood test. PROCTOR was then placed in Armstrong County Jail to await arraignment. Charges include Possession w/Intent to Deliver a Controlled Substance, Possession of Controlled Substance, Possession of Marijuana, Possession of Drug Paraphenalia, Recklessly Endangering another Person, Fleeing and Eluding, DUI, and summary traffic violations. A Trooper sustained injuries from this incident and was taken to UPMC-Presbyterian for treatment of injuries deemed to be non-life threatening.
