Fugitive Michael BURHAM
UPDATE

Warren County, PA – The Pennsylvania State Police is currently the lead agency in the search for fugitive Michael Charles Burham. Michael Burham, 34 years old, was in Warren County Jail on a one-million-dollar bail for kidnapping, burglary and related charges. During the late hours of Thursday, July 6th, Burham escaped from the Warren County Jail. He was last seen wearing a denim jacket, orange stripped jumpsuit, and orange croc style shoes but it is possible for him to have changed clothing. The initial search began in the Warren City but has now expanded to surrounding areas. We have no reason to believe Burham has left the general area. Burham is a self taught survivalist with military training and could be potentially held up in a wooded area. He is to be considered armed and dangerous, we are asking that the public to not approach and to contact PSP Warren at 814-728-3600. All tips are being investigated. US Marshals have issued a $7,500 reward and Warren County Crime Stoppers issued a $2,000 reward for information leading to his apprehension. This remains a very fluid and active investigation which is being conducted in conjunction with our law enforcement partners. Again, anyone with information or concerns is asked to contact PSP Warren at 814-728-3600.
